

Modern Statistics: A Graphical IntroductionSydney: Macquarie University, 248 pages

(1998)

Don McNeil with Marilyn Chilvers, Jenny Middeldorp, Michael Petersons & Pamela Shaw

A basic introduction to statistical methods that assumes no prerequisite knowledge, developed over ten chapters as follows:

1. Introduction
2. Graphing data
3. Summarising data
4. The normal distribution
5. Distributions of means and proportions
6. Confidence intervals
7. Hypothesis testing
8. Comparisons
9. Relations
10. Cross-tabulations