

Division of Economic and Financial Studies
Research Expo
 14 November 2005, MGSM Conference Centre

Program 9:15 Registration 9:45 Welcome Prof John Hooper, Dean, Higher Degree Research
Room 1 10 – 11 Chair: Rod O'Donnell	Gordon Brooks, Bus A determination of the sub-factors of organisational commitment. Kym Boon, A&F NSW local government auditor choice decisions in the context of compulsory audit tendering. Vinita Deodhar, Econ Estimating benefits of local heritage programs using economic valuation techniques.	Room 2 10 – 11 Chair: Samantha Sin	Stephane Bignoux, Bus Planned short-term dyadic strategic alliances: A social exchange perspective. Ivan Trofimov, Econ Institutional innovation in agricultural development: the intersection with biotechnology issues. Alan Marshall, Econ Achieving a better economy.
11 – 12 Chair: Angie Knox	Kenneth Beath, Stats Latent variable models in infant growth. Karol Binkowski, Stats Some applications of generalized hyperbolic distributions in finance. Duangdaw Sirisatien Optimal Animal Nutrition	11 – 12 Chair: Peter Petocz	Gordon Boyce, A&F Globalisation and incipient movements of resistance: hegemonic forces and mediating factors. Supriya Eliezer, A&F A comparative study of corporate governance and code of ethics for professional accountants. Alex Moore Bayesian Stochastic search for group level parameters in a discrete choice system
12 – 1 Chair: Graham Wood	Christopher Anderson, Stats The importance of line width measurements in discriminating between pencil types in forensic handwriting investigations. Sibba Gudlaugsdottir, Stats Modelling the origin of introns. Hilary Green, Stats The use of colour as a variable in statistical graphs.	12 – 1 Chair: Peter Petocz	Stephen Boyle, Econ The transition and development of Australia's symphony orchestras from government departments to corporate entities. Roger London, Bus FIT TO SERVE: A comparative case study of the quality and development of 'configuration' in the management of service organisations in Australia. Jawad Syed, Bus Comparative study of diversity management in Australian and Pakistani organizations.
1 - 2 LUNCH
2 – 3 Chair: Sean Turnell	Faiza Ali, Bus Prospects for equal employment opportunity in Islamic society. Rebecca Reeve, Econ Indigenous poverty and policy approaches in urban NSW-A multidimensional approach. Andrea Chareunsy, Econ Education and learning in the economic development of Laos	2 – 3 Chair: Peter Petocz	Rachel O'Connell, Stats Development and assessment of prognostic indices for assessing risk. Ling Li, Stats Multi-level statistical analysis of medical and epidemiological data. Zhixin Liu, Stats Individual decision making in health care and medicine.
3 – 4 Chair: Clare Bellis	Brian Chu, AcSt Return-to-work in workers' compensation. Mohammed Naseri, Bus Demographic determinants of information & communication technologies & financial services options. Feras Aldwekat, Econ Age and productivity in Jordan.	3 – 4 Chair: Neil Fargher	Dorothy Wong, Stats Multivariate methods for the analysis of genomic and proteomic data. Tony Ghazi, Econ Institutional framework of doing business in Lebanon. Hoang Viet Ha, Bus A study of model of corporate governance in transitional economies.
4 – 5 Chair: Nick Parr	Ruth Penman, Stats Modelling assisted reproductive technology data. Braddon Lance, Stats Sequential comparative modelling of tertiary protein structure. Fabien Huard, Stats Investigation of the sequential aspect in protein folding.	4 – 5 Chair: Melanie Beresford	Dumaria Tampubolon, AcSt Uncertainties in the estimation of the outstanding claims liability in general insurance. Alicia Jiang, A&F Bridging the gap—improving audit effectiveness in identifying going concern risk. Julian De Meyrick, Bus Anti-smoking advertising aimed at adolescent Australians.
5 – 6 DRINKS Award of Prizes: Popular vote for the best paper			